CLIENT TESTIMONIAL

“Navid, you managed to capture us just as we are and our wedding photos truly reflect the feelings and emotions of that day.”

DARIA & GUY

hey there

I'M NAVID MUGHAL

I am a photographer, lover of weddings, and a storyteller

Nice to meet you! I'm the person behind Navid Mughal Photography and the one behind the camera. I am a husband and a dad to two gorgeous children that run me ragged most days but I wouldn't want it any other way!

I love the excitement of shooting weddings and I love to work with couples that like to kick back and want to have a fun-filled and relaxed wedding day that is uniquely theirs. Couples who love beautiful, natural and creative photography, photography that captures a journalistic story of their wedding day and their own unique style and relationship.

I truly believe a wedding day should be wonderful and memorable for all the right reasons. A day of celebration, joy and laughter. Happy memories maybe of those embarrassing stories and the silly dancing when you can let your hair down at the end of the evening.

As well as being creative I am naturally curious. I love to find out all about the two of you.

I want to know how you both met. Your first date, your favourite film, what you both love doing together and how you finally got to this day.. planning your wedding day.

By getting to know you I find out what's important to you and learn about you as a couple so I can plan and capture your unique wedding story by capturing ordinary moments that are gone in the blink of an eye and turn them into extraordinary heirlooms. The kind of photos that transport you the minute you hold them in your hands.

I am a photographer, lover of weddings, and a storyteller and I know now that long after the cake has been eaten, and your dress has been hung, your photography will be one of the only things that remains after your special, precious day.

These are your first heirlooms as a new family, so please choose someone who will cherish them as much as you will.

WHAT MAKES ME DIFFERENT

Let's be honest: I'm not the type of guy to brag. I've been served "humble pie" my whole life, but if this is the only chance I get to make an impression on you, you better believe I'm going to take it and make it memorable! I know that you have hundreds of options when it comes to choosing your photographer for your wedding day! There is talent oozing out of every town and city; and yet here you are reading this magazine (by the way, this magazine pairs well with a glass of prosecco, so if your hand is empty, go fill it!).

Because I care, I take clients and turn them into close friends. Throughout your entire wedding day I am watching everything unfold and documenting moments that I know you will cherish for years to come, moments you might not even see happen.

I'm living your day through your eyes and capturing it in a way that will give you the ability to relive it for years to come. Every little hand grab, tear shed, dance move... You'll get those shots (and hundreds more) because your wedding day is filled with tiny moments, tiny details, with one beautiful love story interwoven through every single frame. That story? It's yours. Let me tell it.

5 TIPS FOR A

Relaxed

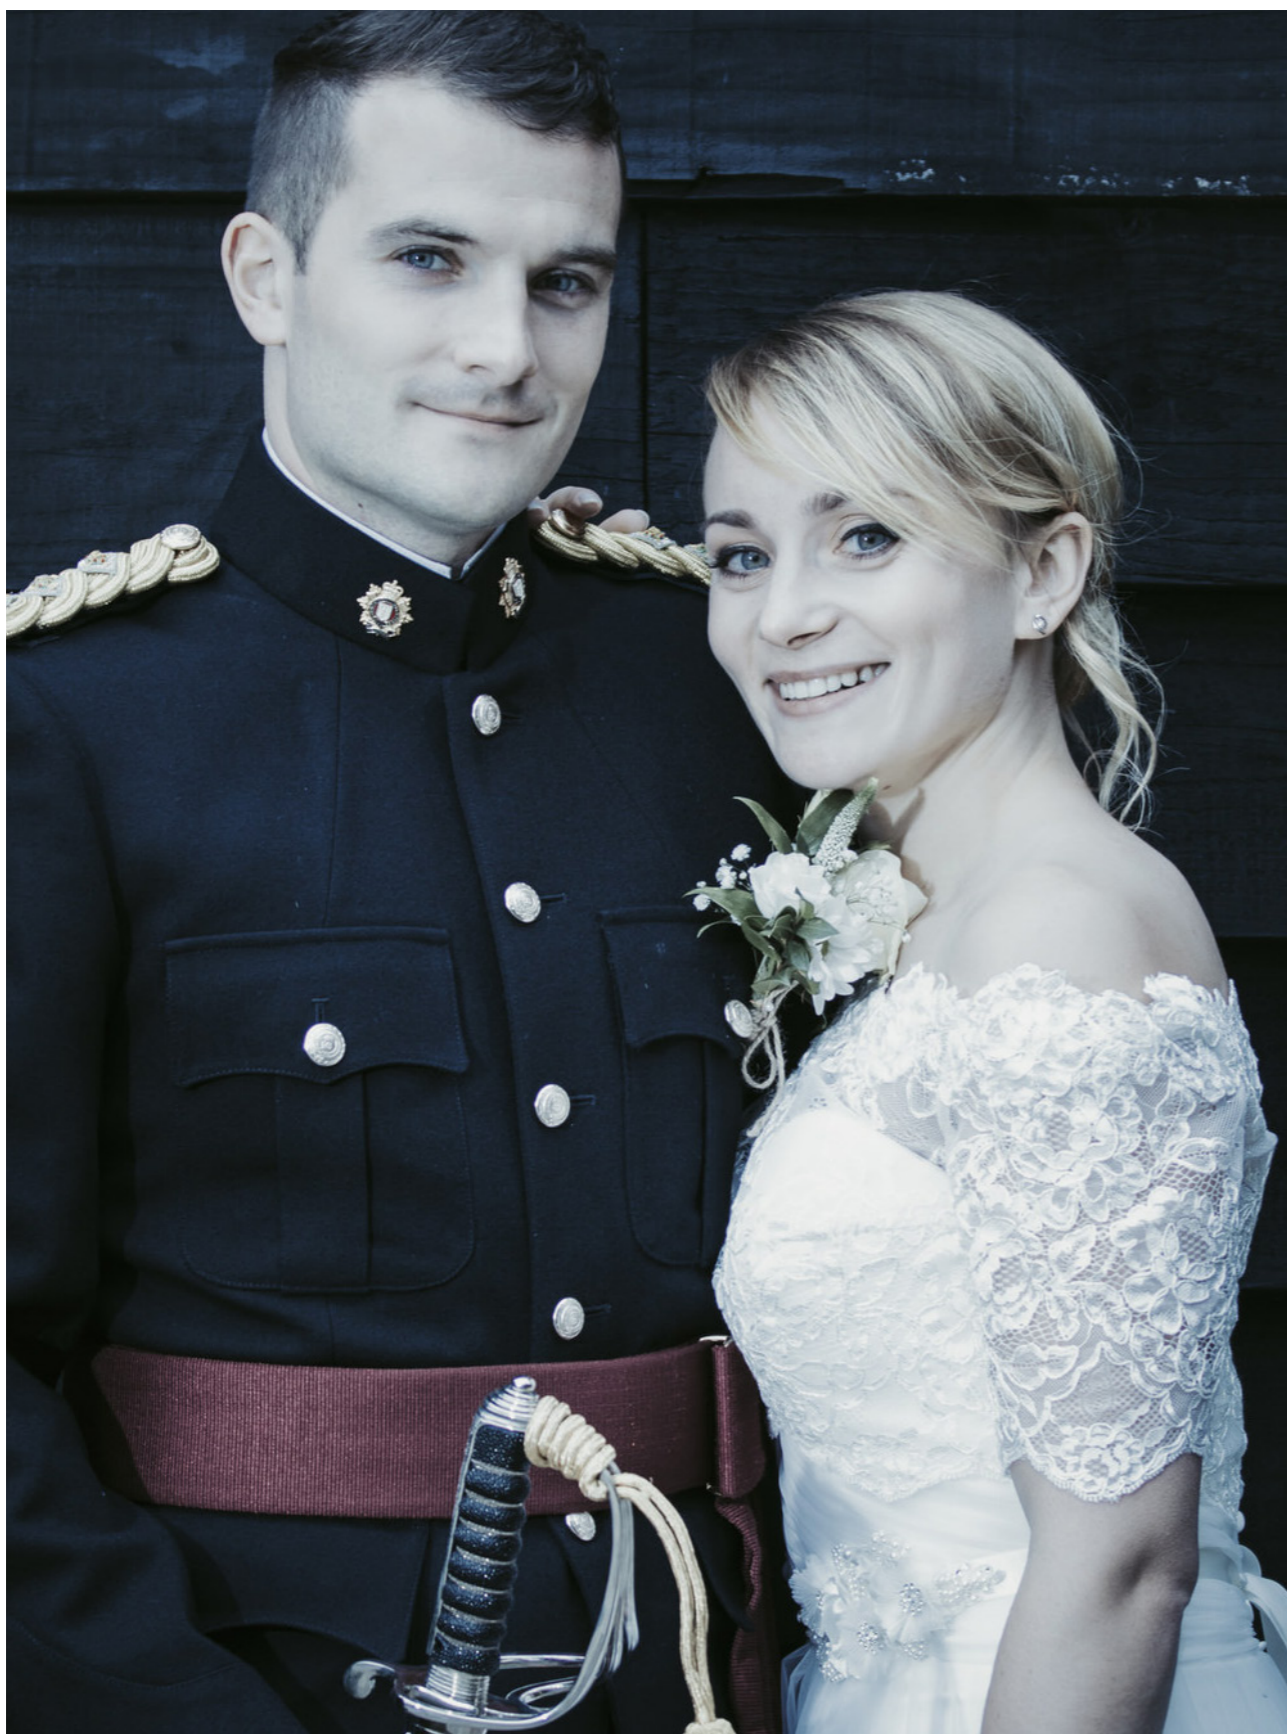

WEDDING DAY

Let's talk through five tips to help facilitate a stress-free wedding day!

After witnessing and taking part in a lot of weddings, I feel like I have truly seen it all. Let me be honest in telling: my clients are amazing. They are the best of the best, the cream of the crop, the people I feel fortunate to know. In working with the best, I need to be the best.

It's all about guiding my couples through the complicated / stressful / crazy process of planning the biggest, most important day of your life. No biggie, right? Wrong. So, let's talk through five tips to help facilitate a stress-free wedding day, shall we?

READ ON...

SCHEDULE STRATEGICALLY

Your ceremony time will direct how the day will lead. If it's easy, great, you can do your photos in between that and cocktail hour, but if your ceremony flows into your cocktails, well, you should probably consider a first look. My goal? To have everyone present for as much of cocktail hour as possible. Why? The answer is two-fold. One: you are paying for it, so you might as well enjoy it. Two: it's one of the only times you get to greet and be present with your guests. Work with your photographer, find out how long they need for certain things, schedule in travel time, and add a little cushion!

PREP AHEAD OF TIME 2

When your photographer shows up, you want them to get right to work. How do you do this? By preparing ahead of time. What should you prepare? Well, anything you want photographed. For my brides, I tell them to have their: dress, shoes, jewellery, full invitation suite, all of the rings, any family heirlooms, and any other bridal details they want photographed. When I start shooting, I begin with styling these details that help tell your wedding story. If you don't have things ready, I'll be wasting time tracking them down (when I could be making them pretty and shooting!) The more prepared you are, the better - for you and for me!

3 COMMUNICATE CLEARLY

Need your grandma to the church early? Want your wedding party to hang around after the ceremony? Need your college buddies ready for a shot during cocktail hour? Tell them! Make sure you communicate the schedule clearly and that everyone who needs it has it. This helps us not waste time tracking Uncle Jim down or grabbing Bobby from the bar. Photos move much faster, and when that happens you get to your party sooner and you're less stressed, I promise.

MAKE TIME FOR PHOTOS

I suggest to my couples to consider 'first looks' photos, if you're not superstitious, for multiple reasons. First, it gives you the chance to soak it in, embrace, and experience the emotions without hundreds of pairs of eyes on you. Second, it allows us to knock out the posed photos so we can cruise through the festivities with candid shots that you'll love. Lastly, it gives me the chance to sneak into your reception during cocktail hour and photograph all of the hard work you've done! From florals to seating charts, gift tables to cakes. Of course I fully understand if you don't want to see each other before the ceremony; in which case allow at least an hour after your formal group photos to capture your beautiful bridal portraits. Trust me! It takes time to make those creative portraits you've seen and love.

JUST BE PRESENT 5

Wait, what? You don't believe when everyone tells you that a wedding day is a total whirlwind? Well, it is. Take moments where you stop, hold each other's hands, and intentionally take in the moments. When I shoot portraits of my clients, I make sure it's private and I tell them, "This isn't just time for photos, this is a time for you to be fully present. To hug each other and feel the warmth, to look into each other's eyes and lock that memory, to kiss like you're 15 and never kissed before..." You get the idea. Throughout the day, set aside little breaks in your schedule where you can pull away from the party and just simply "be." You won't regret that time, I promise! I truly believe that wedding days are living, moving, breathing phenomena. They are here and gone in the blink of an eye. It's important to set yourself up for success and to ease any stress ahead of time so that as you float through your day you aren't focused on the details or the flowers, not on the cake or the music, but you're focused on the union, the marriage that is beginning. I want you to experience - not just plan - a marriage more beautiful than your wedding day. If you put these five tips to work, you'll be on your way to a stress-free day!

Investment

Your photographer is an investment

Every wedding is unique, just like you. Being your photographer is a job I take seriously.

Your photographer is an investment. Investment is indeed the right word for it, because in truth your photos and your heirloom album will live on for generations to enjoy. Once the cake is eaten, the dress pressed and hung and the guests back home, your photographs will endure to be revisited again and again, bringing back all the emotions!

I have created three perfect collections to suit all weddings, but I want to give you the opportunity to build your own collection of items that will make sure your wedding day is captured perfectly, just the way you want it. No two wedding are ever the same.

Ready to make the best investment of your life? Choose from my three popular collections or let's create a bespoke collection that best suits your needs.

6 TIPS FOR A

GORGEOUS

ENGAGEMENT SESSION

Let's take some beautiful, casual pictures to celebrate your love!

Your left hand has been getting in a workout ever since your fiancé put that beautiful rock on it and you are oozing with excitement at the thought of wedding planning! Sound at all like you? If it does, congrats to you both! Now let's take some beautiful, casual pictures to celebrate!

Your engagement photos are a celebration of your love for each other, taken in a safe place without lots of pressure. I think engagement sessions are such an important part of wedding photography and I've written this article to ensure you have the perfect engagement session with your love!

SESSION VISION

When you think of your engagement session, what do you visualize? An open field? Urban brick? A weeping willow tree? What is it that you feel suits the two of you? Are there any special locations that might be ideal for your engagement shoot? If not, don't fret! It's not about where you are but who you are with. A lot of my brides leave the location up to me - which means I get to scope out spots ahead of time! The way I shoot, the focus is on the two of you and your beautiful faces. The background is just as important, so if there is a place that's uniquely special to the two of you, or you'd like to include a family heirloom, a pet, or something else that's meaningful let me know. I am here to help you incorporate it into your images!

FASHION & WARDROBE

Don't feel like you need to go on a mega shopping spree for your session (but if you can, more power to ya!) I want you to be comfortable - I want you to connect with your images - so if you are a jeans and tee kinda girl, then rock it with a fun colour! Consider an outfit change for your session. Bring along a dressier option (read: flowy maxi dress) and a casual option (read: jeans and a fun shirt). I will make a little Pinterest board for inspiration for you both, but I am always open to chat wardrobe. Don't feel like you have to go for plain classics the entire time. Have fun with color, texture, and prints! This is to remember this special time in your lives, so don't limit yourself!

PRO HAIR & MAKEUP

You'll want to look your best for your wedding photos, so why wouldn't you want the same for your professional engagement photos too! It makes all the difference! Consider using this time as a test run with your makeup artist and use your session as a time to evaluate your wedding day look and how it photographs. If you can swing it, please consider getting your hair & makeup done for your engagement session! I promise you it will make a world of a difference and you will look and feel absolutely glamorous.

ALL ABOUT TIMING

Timing is everything for your session. As a natural light photographer, I plan my engagement sessions around the lighting of the day. I usually begin them an hour and a half prior to sunset, which will allow for an outfit change while shooting during the golden hour. Being on time ensures that we do not cut into your session time, so showing up on time and ready will help yield great results! Once the sun goes down, there isn't much we can do, so staying on track with timing and lighting is the best way to ensure gorgeous images. This also means that at times we may have to reschedule due to weather. You only get to do this once, so ensuring the environment is perfect will give you beautifully lit images!

TRUST ME

This is the whole reason you chose your photographer, right? Because they know the best lighting, the best poses, and the best techniques to make you two look and feel like supermodels. Now it's time for you to take a deep breath and trust the person you chose to do their best work with you. The more trust you place in them, the more free they will be to create the types of images that you'll love the most. You're going to feel uncomfortable, awkward, and alllllll the things! But in-between those little moments of awkwardness come total gems of authentic interactions that can only happen when two people are in love. Relinquish the control, give trust out freely, and let go of your expectations!

JUST HAVE FUN

This is such an exciting time in your lives. I know that engagement sessions can seem nerve-wracking but it's important to go in with an open mind and the ability to laugh. I want you two to flirt your brains out, love each other, and just have fun. We will laugh a lot, I will help pose you. Your only job: snuggle in close, bat your eye lashes, and laugh until your belly aches. It's going to be fun, we might finish the session with a bottle of wine, and I promise you that you will love seeing these beautiful images of the two of you for years to come. Engagement sessions are the perfect time to hang out with your photographer, get comfortable in front of the camera, and flirt with your soon-to-be spouse! What more could a girl ask for?

FROM MY INCREDIBLE CLIENTS

A few testimonials from real clients who have allowed me to be a part of the most important day of their life.

I would not be all that I am without my amazing clients. Many of the couples I work with end up keeping in touch long after the wedding day and become my close friends, and I am incredibly grateful I know I've talked a lot in this magazine about who I am and what I do, but now it's time to let others do some of the telling!

Working with so many wonderful, amazing people with wonderful stories to tell has been one of the biggest joys of being a wedding photographer. Here are just a few testimonials from real clients who have allowed me to be a part of the most important day of their life.

"We want to thank you not only for your amazing work but also for your good advice, flexibility, professionalism, understanding and positivity. You managed to capture us just as we are and our wedding photos truly reflect the feelings and emotions of that day. Our families couldn't say enough about how much they loved the images. It has been a pleasure to work and communicate with you and we would recommend you to any couple wanting the perfect wedding photos."

YVONNE & BRIAN

"When Brian first asked me to marry him, and we started to discuss our day, there was no one else I wanted to take the photos, other than Navid. He is very much dedicated to his line of work. We couldn't be happier with our wedding photos and relive the day every time we look at them."

MARIANNA & JULIAN

"Navid really is so talented at what he does. Not only does he take phenomenal photos, capturing the most precious moments perfectly, he is also kind and such a pleasure to work with. Everyone from our wedding commented on what a nice guy Navid was and how they've not seen such a thorough and professional photographer before. From the moment we had our initial chat, to the big day we felt completely taken care of. Navid takes into consideration every aspect of how he's going to capture the best from your wedding and how you'd like it to be... We will be recommending you to all of our friends and family."

LORRAINE & STEVE

"Navid was absolutely fantastic, just brilliant. He was so laid back, unobtrusive and nothing was too much trouble for him. We were able to tell him what we wanted and he just clicked away, producing the most fantastic photos. Navid had a second shooter on the day to capture all the moments and the photos were delivered to us all in time and we are so grateful. Hopefully we can find another reason or have him photograph us again in 5 years time."
